Unauthorised items

Arrangements for unauthorised items taken into the exam room

In an exam room candidates must not have access to items other than those clearly allowed in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list, or the specification for that subject. This is particularly true of mobile phones, watches and other electronic communication or storage devices with text or digital facilities. Any precluded items must not be taken into an exam room. Students can leave their belongings in a nearby classroom when sitting exams in the main sports hall. This room is locked while the exam is in progress. If students accidentally take any unauthorised items into the sports hall, the exam invigilators will take the item and put it in an envelope labelled with the students name and keep it at the front of the exam room until the exam has ended.

If students are in smaller separate rooms for their exams they can take in their belongings to the room but have to leave them at the front – any phone watches etc have to be left on a desk, switched off, at the front in an envelope.
